RALPH C. WILSON, Jr.

President and Owner

The face of modern professional football has been shaped by men like Ralph C. Wilson, Jr., only owner of the Buffalo Bills since their induction as an original member of the American Football League in 1960.

A sports interest that dated from boyhood stimulated Wilson to first purchase a minority interest in the NFL Detroit Lions and later to join ranks with Lamar Hunt and the other principals of the new AFL. The youthful owner chose Buffalo as the home for his fledgling franchise on October 17, 1959, and six weeks later named it "the Bills."

In the 16 years that have passed since, professional football has enjoyed explosive popularity and expansion, completed a major merger and been beset by labor strife. Ralph Wilson has remained involved.

It was Wilson and Carroll Rosenbloom, then owner of the Baltimore Colts, who had the first tentative talks in January, 1965, that would ultimately lead to the AFL-NFL merger. A past president of the AFL, Wilson served as a member of the expansion committee and the AFL-NFL Negotiations Committee.

The Bills' owner presently serves on the prestigious NFL Labor Committee, and has been continuously involved in bargaining talks with the NFL Players' Association.

A resident of Detroit since moving there with his family as a youngster, Wilson won his undergraduate degree from the University of Virginia and later attended the University of Michigan law school. He enlisted in the Navy during World War II, earning his commission within a year and serving aboard minesweepers in both the Atlantic and Pacific theatres.

Among many business pursuits, Wilson is president of the Ralph C. Wilson Insurance Agency and Motorcar, an auto transport business. His interest in sports, however, extends beyond football. He owns a stable of thoroughbred race horses and is an avid tennis player, skier and golfer.

From the inception of the Bills, Wilson has played a dynamic and active role in the organization. He is determined in his effort to bring two things — "winning football and a Super Bowl trophy" — to the NFL faithful of Western New York.

Wilson's contribution to the game was recognized by the weekly publication, Football News, which named him "Man of the Year" in 1973. "He has been a tower of strength in the administration of professional football," the newspaper said.

FRONT OFFICE STAFF

BOB LUSTIG
Vice President-Gen. Mgr.

PAT MCGRODER
Vice President

ROBERT T. LUSTIG

Vice President — General Manager

Bills' Vice President and General Manager Bob Lustig has been an associate of Owner Ralph Wilson since 1948. When Wilson became one of the original members of the newly-born American Football League in 1960, he entrusted Lustig with the responsibility for signing many of the players on the original Bills roster. Four years later, Lustig was devoting fulltime to the Bills operation as a Vice President. He took on the additional title of General Manager in 1967. In addition to directing the Buffalo organization's administrative, ticket, and stadium operations, Lustig also represents the club at official League meetings and sits on the Board of Directors of National Football League Properties, Inc. The Bills' General Manager was a key figure in the drive for a new stadium to house Buffalo's NFL franchise — a dream finally realized in 1973 with the dedication of a magnificent 80,020 — seat facility in Orchard Park, N.Y. "We built the stadium with the comfort of the fan as our foremost concern," Lustig says. "We feel we have the finest football facility in the League." For all of his present association with football, Lustig's first love was baseball — a sport he played on the American Legion level as a high school student in Detroit and, later, as a freshman at the University of Detroit. His college career was interrupted by Army service in World War II, where he saw action in the European theater as a member of the 104th Infantry Division. He returned to Detroit following the war to complete his college education, then went to work for the Ralph Wilson Agency.

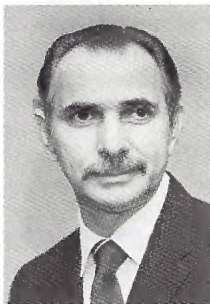

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born July 12, 1924 ... Attended Catholic Central High School in Detroit, Mich., and the University of Detroit ... He and wife Eileen have four children, Bob, Christine, Mike and Tom ... Makes his home in Kenmore.

PATRICK J. McGRODER, Jr.

Vice President

An early champion of Buffalo's AFL franchise was Patrick J. McGroder, the city's sports coordinator at the time Ralph Wilson brought the young Bills to Western New York. At Wilson's insistence, McGroder joined the club's front office staff in 1962 as Vice President. The longtime Buffalo native serves as the organization's advertising sales coordinator and handles other special duties at the management level. McGroder attended St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute and Hutchinson High School, Canisius and Chattanooga Colleges. He founded McKinley Liquor Company in 1942 after achieving the position of National Sales Representative for W.A. Taylor Importers. McGroder was the Buffalo Athletic Club's "Sportsman of the Year" in 1955 and winner of the Chamber of Commerce "Good Government Award" three years later. His efforts in promoting professional football games for Buffalo nearly enabled him to secure an NFL franchise for the city. He has remained fast friends with such legendary pro football figures as George Halas of Chicago and Art Rooney of Pittsburgh. In addition to sports coordinator, McGroder also served as Buffalo Parks Commissioner and President of the Police Athletic League.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born March 17, 1904 ... Attended St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute and Hutchinson High School, Canisius and Chattanooga Colleges ... Excellent golfer ... He and wife Loretta have two daughters, Carol and Kathleen, and a son, Patrick III ... Lives in Buffalo.

JIM CIPRIANO

BUDD THALMAN
Vice Pres.-Public Relations

JIM CIPRIANO Ticket Director

Tickets have always been Jim Cipriano's business. Starting with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad following World War II service in the U.S. Marine Corps, later with the Pennsylvania Railroad and the University of Pittsburgh athletic department, Jim Cipriano has accumulated almost 30 years of experience in his profession. The likable native of Youngstown, Ohio, was named Bills' Ticket Director in April, 1969. Prior to his Buffalo appointment, Cipriano was Assistant Business Manager of Athletics for 12 years at the University of Pittsburgh. While at Pitt, he attended evening classes for six years to earn his Bachelor of Business Administration degree.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born June 19, 1925 in Youngstown, Ohio ... Attended North High School in Youngstown and the University of Pittsburgh ... He and his wife, Angelina, have a daughter, Adrienne ... Lives in the Boston Hills.

L. BUDD THALMAN

Vice President — Public Relations

Budd Thalman came to the Buffalo organization in 1973 after spending 11 years as Sports Information Director at the U.S. Naval Academy. A native of Wheeling, W. Va., he is a 1957 Journalism graduate of West Virginia University. He worked for one year in the Associated Press Bureau at Huntington, W. Va., before entering the Army where he served from 1958-60 as Public Information Officer for Fort Jay, Governor's Island, N.Y. Thalman returned to the AP in 1960, transferring to the Annapolis, Md., Bureau. He went to the Naval Academy in January, 1962.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Oct. 6, 1935 ... Attended Central Catholic High School in Wheeling, W. Va., and West Virginia University at Morgantown, W. Va. ... Married, he and wife Pattie have two sons, Mark and Scott and a daughter, Kelly ... Resides in Orchard Park.

ATTENDANCE LEADERS

The Buffalo Bills have led the National Football League in home attendance three straight years. Since the Bills moved into the new 80,020-seat stadium in Orchard Park in 1973, fifteen of 21 regular season games have been played before sellout crowds.

BILLS TRAIN AT NIAGARA

For the tenth consecutive year, the Bills will train on the campus of Niagara University at Niagara Falls, N.Y. Rookies and selected veterans are scheduled to report on Friday, July 9 and the balance of the squad one week later on July 16. The 1976 Bills training camp opens one week earlier than a year ago due to the earlier start of the entire NFL schedule.

LOUIS H. SABAN

Vice President-Head Coach

Lou Saban was on hand when the American Football League launched its bold new experiment on July 30, 1960, with a pre-season game between the Boston Patriots, Saban's team then, and the Buffalo Bills, his team now.

Playing in Buffalo, where he has since achieved spectacular success in two different tours as head coach of the Bills, Saban directed the visiting Patriots to a 28-7 victory that got the AFL off and running.

That first game is only one of the many milestones Saban has marked in his 16 seasons of professional coaching. Others include:

- the AFL's first regular season game (9/9/60 Denver 13, Boston 10);
- the AFL's first divisional playoff game (12/28/63 Boston 26, Buffalo 8);
- the first AFL-NFL pre-season game (8/5/67 Denver 13, Detroit 7);
- the last game to be played in New York's Polo Grounds (12/8/63 Buffalo 19, New York Jets 10).

It was also Saban who produced the AFL's first 1,000-yard rusher, fullback Cookie Gilchrist (1,098 yards) in 1962. He has since developed two more — Floyd Little at Denver and O.J. Simpson. Saban's 1973 Bills set a standard for rushing excellence unmatched in NFL annals when, triggered by Simpson's record 2,003-yard year, they became the first team in history to gain more than 3,000 yards on the ground.

In the four seasons since his return to Buffalo, Saban has restored the Bills to the stature they enjoyed with back-to-back AFL titles in the mid-1960's.

Lou's personal mark in eight seasons as skipper of the Bills is 66-42-4, a winning percentage of 60%. Only one of his clubs finished with less than winning season and his 1964 AFL champions reeled off 12 triumphs, still the Bills best effort ever.

Born on Oct. 13, 1921, in Brookfield, Ill., Saban was a single-wing quarterback at the University of Indiana under Bo McMillin. Captain of the Hoosiers, he was the team's MVP in 1942. His collegiate playing career was cut short by World War II. Saban served in the Army for four years, much of it as a Chinese language interpreter in the China-Burma theater.

Returning from service, Saban caught on as a free agent with the fledgling Cleveland Browns of the infant All-American Football Conference. He played linebacker for Paul Brown's powerhouse teams of the late-40's, appearing in four consecutive Conference championship games, and earning a berth on League all-star teams in both 1948 and 1949.

Captain of the Browns' undefeated (14-0) 1948 squad, Saban intercepted 13 passes in his four-year playing career. In addition to linebacker, he was also Otto Graham's backup at quarterback although "thankfully," as Lou puts it, "Otto was able to play most of the time." Injuries to both shoulders forced Saban to retire following the 1949 season.

First stop on a coaching career that now spans 25 years was Case Institute in Cleveland where Saban directed the football program for three seasons (1950-52). He moved to the University of Washington as an assistant in 1953 and to Northwestern in the same capacity a year later. Named head coach of the Wildcats in 1955, Saban left Evanston after one season and spent the next year (1956) in private business.

Western Illinois University beckoned in 1957 and Saban accepted the assignment of rebuilding the Leathernecks football fortunes. He did it in dramatic fashion, taking Western from a 5-4 record in his rookie season to an unbeaten 9-0 mark in 1959.

His success at Western Illinois attracted the attention of the Boston Patriots, who selected Saban as the first coach of the new American Football League Club. The Patriots won five games in their initial season and were 2-3 after five weeks of the 1961 campaign when Saban was replaced by Mike Holovak.

Ralph Wilson promptly hired Lou as the Bills' Director of Player Personnel and, a year later (1962), gave him the Buffalo coaching job. The move paid off with AFL titles in 1964 and 1965; back-to-back "AFL Coach-of-the-Year" citations for Saban, and a flood of Buffalo victories.

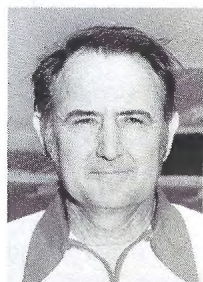

A yearn to return to college coaching took Saban to Maryland in 1966 but, a year later, he was back in professional football as General Manager-Head Coach of the Denver Broncos. The Broncos stock rose steadily on the field and off under Saban's imaginative leadership. His effort was instrumental in a $1.8 million stadium renovation and his judgment of player personnel laid the foundations for the Broncos recent successes.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Oct., 13, 1921 ... Attended Brookfield, Ill., High School and Indiana University ... Avid low-handicap golfer ... He and his wife, Lorraine, have a son, Tom, and three daughters, Barbara, Patricia, and Christine ... Lives in Orchard Park, N.Y.

ASSISTANT COACHES AND FOOTBALL STAFF

Jim LaRue

Richie McCabe

Errol Prisby

JIM LaRUE Receivers

A college football coach for 26 years, Jim LaRue makes his bow in the professional ranks this fall. The native of Clinton, Okla., where he played four sports and was an All-State halfback. He was associate head coach and offensive coordinator at Wake Forest University a year ago. LaRue masterminded the Demon Deacons' defense in 1974. The new Buffalo assistant is a former head coach at the University of Arizona, where he led the Wildcats to a won-lost record of 41-37-2 from 1959-66. His 1961 Arizona team was 8-1-1, the best single season record in the history of the school, and ranked second nationally in both passing and receiving. Over one span, LaRue's Wildcats rolled up three straight victories over arch-rival Arizona State. Three of his Arizona products were picked in the first three rounds of the NFL draft. After leaving Tucson following the 1966 season, LaRue went to the University of Utah where he was defensive coordinator and top assistant for six years (1967-73). He also served on college staffs at Southern Methodist (1957-58), the University of Houston (1955-56), Kansas State (1954, 1951) and the University of Maryland (1950). Ten of his former quarterbacks are presently coaching in college, junior college or high school ball. Ex-Cowboy great Don Meredith was a LaRue pupil at SMU. For two seasons (1952-53), Jim was Athletic Director and Head Football Coach of one of the nation's top service teams at the Bainbridge, Md., Naval Training Center. A two-way halfback in college, LaRue played at Carson-Newman, Duke and Maryland, while working on a Master's degree. He appeared in three Bowl games including the 1945 Duke-Alabama Sugar Bowl classic. Drafted twice, he passed up a professional playing career to teach and coach.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born August 11, 1925 . . . Went to Clinton, Okla., High School . . . Holds a Bachelor's in Mathematics from Duke University and a Master's in Education from Maryland . . . He and wife, Betty, have three children—daughters Jill and Mrs. Judy Roberts, and son Tom . . . Lives in Hamburg.

RICHIE McCABE Defensive Backs

New defensive backfield skipper Richie McCabe is hardly new to the Buffalo organization. He has been with the Bills twice previously—as a player in the formative years of the franchise (1960-61) and later as an assistant coach (1966-68). A member of the Cleveland Browns' staff for five seasons (1971-75), Richie had the twin responsibilities of defensive coordinator and secondary coach for two years. A native of Pittsburgh, McCabe was a starter on both offense and defense for the Pitt Panthers. Selected by the Steelers in the 22nd round of the 1955 college draft and played four seasons in his hometown before going to the Redskins in 1959. He signed with the Bills a year later and made the 1960 American Football League all-star teams selected by the Associated Press and the Sporting News. A 1961 knee injury forced an early end to his playing days. He had five interceptions in his abbreviated Buffalo career. Returning to Pittsburgh, McCabe taught in high school for two years before entering coaching at Carnegie Tech where he worked during the 1964-65 seasons. Richie broke into professional coaching with the Bills in 1966. His 1967 secondary established a team record that stood until 1974, permitting opponents only 1,825 passing yards in one season. Two of his defenders, George Saimes and Butch Byrd, won All-AFL honors during McCabe's tenure. Moving to Oakland for the 1969-70 seasons, McCabe helped the Raiders to a pair of Western Division championships, working with all-star performers Willie Brown and Dave Grayson. Four of the five years he was with the Browns, McCabe's pass defenders ranked among the top 10 in the NFL. His 1972 Cleveland group was third in the League.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born March 12, 1934 . . . Attended North Catholic High School in Pittsburgh, Pa., and the University of Pittsburgh . . . College degree is in Business Administration . . . Wife's name is Judith . . . Has two daughters, Kelly and Erin . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

ERROL PRISBY Special Assignments

Ed Cavanaugh's successor as Coach of the Buffalo special teams is Errol Prisby, who played for Coach Lou Saban at Denver in 1967. Defensive backfield coach at the University of Massachusetts for four seasons (1972-75), Prisby made the Broncos as a free agent. A defensive back and flanker, he also paired with Floyd Little on kickoff and punt returns. The new assistant is a native of Kent, Ohio, where he excelled in football, basketball and track at Roosevelt High School. A running back, Prisby played collegiately at the University of Cincinnati. A three-year letterman for the Bearcats, he was named to the All-Missouri Valley Conference team in 1963. Errol was selected by his Cincinnati teammates as the squad's most efficient and consistent back during his senior year. He graduated from Cincinnati with a B.S. in business education. Following his year with the Broncos, Prisby took a job with Mountain Bell Telephone Company. Dick MacPherson, ex-Denver assistant, got him started in coaching at Massachusetts in 1972.

PERSONAL INFORMATION:

Attended Roosevelt High in Kent, Ohio, and the University of Cincinnati . . . B.S. degree in business education . . . Married, he and wife, Ethel, have two children, daughter Laurie and son Warren . . . Lives in Amherst.

John Ray

Jim Ringo

Jerry Wampfler

JOHN RAY

Linebackers

John Ray's varied coaching career includes experience at every level of the game—high school, college, and professional. A native of South Bend, Ind., Ray has been closely associated with Notre Dame, as a student and football center for one year (1944) and for five seasons as an assistant coach. When his college education was interrupted by Army service in World War II, Ray transferred from Notre Dame to Olivet College, where he received his B.A. degree in 1950. Upon graduation, Ray immediately accepted a job as assistant football coach at Sturgis, Mich., High School and, two years later, a head coaching position at Three Rivers, Mich., High. Named to the University of Detroit staff in 1955, Ray served as an assistant for four seasons before becoming head coach at John Carroll University in Cleveland. His five-year record of 29-6 included three undefeated seasons and a string of six National defensive marks. Ray left to join Ara Parseghian at Notre Dame, helping assemble the Irish's 1966 National Championship squad. He was Irish defensive coordinator for five seasons and assistant head coach, as well, for two. In December, 1968, Ray was chosen head football coach at the University of Kentucky. He rebuilt the Wildcats' sagging football fortunes and, in the process, scored major upsets over Mississippi and Kansas State. Ray became the Bills' linebacker coach in 1973.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born June 4, 1926 . . . Attended John Adams High School in South Bend, Ind.; the University of Notre Dame, and Olivet College . . . Awarded B.A. degree from Olivet in 1950 . . . Later won M.A. in educational guidance and counseling from the University of Michigan . . . Good golfer . . . He and his wife, Barbara, have two daughters, Kathy and Debora, and two sons, Jeffrey and Chris . . . Home is in East Aurora.

JIM RINGO

Offensive Line

When the Green Bay Packers were the terrors of professional football, Jim Ringo was the Pack's captain and center. An All-Pro eight times and Pro Bowl choice ten times, Ringo played in three consecutive NFL championship games. He was a member of the Pack's 1961 and 1962 title teams. Over 14 years, Ringo appeared in 182 straight games, establishing a new NFL record for endurance. Traded by the Packers after 11 seasons, he played four years for the Philadelphia Eagles before retiring in 1967. Ringo won All-East acclaim at Syracuse University where he was a center and linebacker under Ben Schwartzwalder. He played with Syracuse in the 1953 Orange Bowl game. A seventh round draft choice of the Packers, Ringo was a key figure in the franchise's rise from also-ran to champion. He was Green Bay captain for eight seasons. Jim was named to the Packer "Hall of Fame" in 1973. Ringo entered pro coaching with the Chicago Bears in 1969. After three seasons in Chicago, Lou Saban hired Ringo and charged him with development of the Bills' offensive line. The payoff to Ringo's two years of building came in 1973 when Buffalo cracked the NFL rushing record established by Miami in 1972 and became the first professional football team ever to gain more than 3,000 yards on the ground.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Nov. 21, 1932 . . . Attended Phillipsburg, N.J., High School and Syracuse University . . . Social Studies major at Syracuse . . . Earned his B.A. degree in 1953 . . . His family includes wife Betty and four children—a daughter, Michelle, and three sons, James, Anthony, and Kurt . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

JERRY WAMPFLER

Defensive Line

Recruited by Woody Hayes, Jerry Wampfler arrived at Miami (Ohio) University after Hayes had departed for Ohio State and left the football program to Ara Parseghian. For three seasons, Wampfler was a standout offensive lineman under Parseghian. Following graduation, Wampfler went directly into coaching, starting at New Philadelphia, Ohio, High School in his hometown as an assistant. A year later, he became offensive line coach at Presbyterian College in South Carolina. From 1956-62, Wampfler shifted between assignments at Perry High in Massillon, Ohio, and Lancaster, Ohio, High. He returned to Miami as offensive line coach in 1963 and remained there until 1966 when he was tapped by Parseghian for the same job at Notre Dame. Wampfler had a hand in the Irish's 1966 National Championship and, in four seasons at South Bend, developed such All-Americans as guards Tom Regner and Larry DiNardo, tackles Jim Reilly and George Kunz. Wampfler left Notre Dame in 1970 to accept the head job at Colorado State University. He was the CSU coach for three years. Jerry entered the pros with Mike McCormack's Philadelphia Eagles in 1973, spending three seasons in Philadelphia. Lou Saban named him to the Buffalo staff in February.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born August 6, 1932 ... Attended New Philadelphia, Ohio, High School and Miami University ... Has a B.S. in Education from Miami and a Master's in Education from Xavier, Ohio, University ... He and wife, Carol, have three children—daughters Nan and Jody, son Tad ... Lives in Orchard Park.

Harvey Johnson

Ed Cavanaugh

Elbert Dubenion

HARVEY JOHNSON

Director of Player Personnel

Harvey Johnson was a member of the Buffalo Bills' original coaching staff and has served the club in a variety of positions, including head coach on two separate occasions, ever since. Defensive backfield skipper in 1960-61, Harvey was first appointed Director of Player Personnel in 1962, succeeding Lou Saban when Lou took over the football program. Harvey was Buffalo's head coach for 12 games of the 1968 season, following the abrupt dismissal of Joe Collier, and for the entire 1971 campaign. A product of William & Mary, Johnson played for the Bainbridge, Md., Naval Training Center from 1943-45. A draft choice of the All-American Conference New York Yankees, Johnson played regularly in the pros as a defensive back but earned his principal recognition as a placement specialist, once stringing together 146 consecutive conversions. Harvey remained with the New York franchise when it joined the NFL in 1950 but retired as a player in 1953 to take an assistant coaching job with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats. He became head coach of the Kitchener team (Rugby Football Union) in 1954 and guided them to four titles in as many years. He left Kitchener to coach with the Montreal Alouettes in 1958-59.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born June 22, 1919 ... Attended William and Mary College ... Has a growing stable of thoroughbred horses ... He and wife Molly have five children, Linda Louise, Harvey Jr., Helen, Dan, and Cathy ... Home is in South Wales.

ED CAVANAUGH

Pro Scout

After four seasons as a member of the coaching staff, handling special teams and serving as film coordinator, Ed Cavanaugh has been given new responsibilities as a fulltime pro scout. His position calls for the ex-Duke University lineman to scout the personnel of other NFL teams, to assist in locating talent and making recommendations in trade and waiver transactions. Cavanaugh was in college coaching for almost 20 years, four of them as football skipper at Idaho State University (1968-71), before joining Lou Saban's staff in 1972. In a career that began in 1954, Cavanaugh was an assistant at Kansas State (1954-58), the University of Arizona (1959-66) and Utah State (1967). An offensive lineman for the legendary Wallace Wade at Duke, Cavanaugh graduated in 1951 after winning two football letters for the Blue Devils. He entered the Navy after leaving Duke and became player/coach at the Bainbridge, Md., Naval Training Center, striking up a longtime friendship with Jim LaRue who recently joined the Bills' organization. Following separation from the service, Ed took a job as assistant football coach at Petersburg, Va., High School. He was head freshman coach for three years and offensive line minter for two at Kansas State, served as line coach under LaRue for eight seasons at Arizona and was appointed offensive coordinator at Utah State in 1967. A four-year tenure as head coach at Idaho State followed.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Aug. 25, 1928 ... Attended Wilby High School in Waterbury, Conn., and Eastern Military Academy at Sanford, Conn ... His B.A. degree from Duke University is in History and Government ... Wife's name is Mary ... Makes his residence in Hamburg.

ELBERT DUBENION

Talent Scout

The Bills' career leader in every pass receiving category is Elbert "Golden Wheels" Dubenion, one of the most popular players ever to wear a Buffalo uniform. Dubenion, a member of the 1960 club, retired as a player midway through the 1968 season to accept a full-time position with the scouting department. He was, at the time, the last remaining member of the original Bills. In his eight seasons as a player, Dubenion caught 296 passes for 5,304 yards and 35 touchdowns. All are Buffalo lifetime highs as are his marks of TD receptions in five consecutive games and pass receptions in 42 straight appearances. Duby is third in the all-time standings as the Bills' career scoring champion but ranks as the club leader in touchdowns with 39. A Little All-America at Bluffton College in 1958, Dubenion set a school record with 53 touchdowns in his four varsity seasons. He signed with the Browns in 1959 but was injured at the College All-Star camp. He was an instant success with the fledgling Bills in 1960, winning MVP honors his first season.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Feb. 16, 1933 ... Attended Bluffton College ... He and his wife, Marilyn, have four daughters, Debra, Carolyn, Susan, and Lisa ... Resides in Gahanna, Ohio.

Stew Barber

Eddie Abramowski

Bob Reese

STEW BARBER

Talent Scout

Former All-AFL tackle Stew Barber rejoined the Bills' organization a year ago as a talent scout in the Player Personnel Department. The Bills' fourth round draft choice out of Penn State in 1961, Barber was also drafted by Dallas of the NFL in the third round. He elected Buffalo and over the next nine seasons played in 112 consecutive regularly-scheduled games, was a five-time All-AFL selection and appeared in four League all-star games. Barber was a member of both the Bills' AFL Championship teams. An All-East tackle for the Nittany Lions, Barber played in the Liberty Bowl, the Blue-Grey game, the College All-America and College All-Star games. He earned his college degree in Economics and Real Estate. After a stint in private business and some part-time scouting duties for the Bills, Barber got into professional coaching with the New York Stars of the World Football League. He moved with the WFL franchise when it transferred to Charlotte before finally folding. Barber caught on with the WFL Chicago Wind in 1975 but left to accept a scouting position with the Bills.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born June 14, 1939 ... Attended Bradford, Pa., High School and Penn State University ... Penn State degree is in Economics and Real Estate ... Stew and wife, Vicki, have four daughters—Tracey, Jennifer, Michelle and

EDDIE ABRAMOSKI

Trainer

Since their formation in 1960, the Buffalo Bills have had only one trainer—Eddie Abramowski. An outstanding high school guard in his hometown of Erie, Pa., Abramowski went to Purdue University on a football scholarship. A back injury, which required surgery, wrote an early end to his playing career and led to an interest in becoming an athletic trainer. Following graduation, Eddie landed his first training job at the United States Military Academy, West Point, N.Y. He later moved to the University of Detroit as head trainer. While in Detroit, he moonlighted as a trainer with the Lions. He struck up an acquaintance with Detroit assistant coach Buster Ramsey, who took Abe with him to Buffalo when he was named first head coach of the Bills in 1960.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Nov. 5, 1933 ... Attended Erie, Pa., East High School and Purdue University

... Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Purdue in Physical Education ... Races homing pigeons as a hobby ... He and his wife Patricia have five daughters, Sophia, Cynthia, Carolyn, Jennifer, Rebecca ... Lives in Amherst.

BOB REESE

Trainer

Bob Reese's interest in athletic training dates from his high school days at Father Ryan High in Nashville, Tenn. After one year as a member of the football squad, Bob became a student trainer and has been actively involved in the profession from that day to this. He worked with the training staff throughout his undergraduate career at Purdue University, where Reese earned his B.S. in Physical Education in 1970. Appointed head trainer at Boston College in 1970, Reese, then only 21 years old, was the youngest head trainer in the nation. Bob joined fellow Purdue alumnus Eddie Abramowski with the Bills in 1972.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Sept. 7, 1948 ... Graduate of Father Ryan High School in Nashville, Tenn., and Purdue University ... Holds a B.S. in Physical Education ... He and his wife, Stephanie, have a son, Robert III, and a daughter, Rachel ... Residence is in East Aurora.

Joe Murry

Tony Marchitte

JOE MURRY

Physical Coordinator

Physical coordinator Joe Murry has responsibility for developing the club's strength program. Murry joined the Buffalo organization in March of 1973. Joe holds a Master's degree in Physical Education from Southeastern Louisiana. As an undergraduate at Southwestern Louisiana, he won acclaim as National Collegiate heavyweight weightlifting champion. He set four National records in his speciality and placed fourth in the heavyweight division of the 1968 Olympic trials, narrowly missing a spot on the United States team. Prior to accepting a position with the Bills, Murry taught at Metairie, La., Park Country Day School and was an assistant football coach at several Metairie high schools.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Nov. 2, 1946 ... Attended St. Aloysius High School in New Orleans, La., Southwestern and Southeastern Louisiana ... Bachelor's and Master's degrees are in Physical Education ... He and his wife, Jane, have 2 daughters, Janine & Julie ... Makes his home in West Seneca.

TONY MARCHITTE

Equipment Manager

One of the essential people behind the scenes in the Bills' football operation is equipment manager Tony Marchitte. His responsibilities include maintaining the large stockpile of gear required to outfit the Buffalo squad. Marchitte has been with the Bills almost as long as they've been in business, first joining the organization in 1961. Born in Buffalo, Marchitte is a life-long resident of Western New York. Tony's easy manner and pleasant personality make him a popular member of the staff.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Married, he and his wife, Alice, have two daughters, Mrs. Phylliss List and Mrs. Judith Anne Jordan . . . Lives in Cheektowaga.

BILLS ON TELEVISION

The 1976 NFL regular season schedule calls for four national television appearances by the Bills. Both Monday Night games (Sept. 13 vs. Miami and Nov. 15 at Dallas), plus the Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit (Nov. 25) and the second meeting with Miami (Dec. 5) will be televised around the country.

In 1975 Buffalo was seen nationally seven times and those seven games attracted an estimated audience of 91,530,000 viewers, an average of 13,075,000 per game. Last year's Bills-New York Giants game was the highest rated Monday Night game of the year with an audience of over 15,150,000.

1977 OPPONENTS

One thing is reasonably sure about Buffalo's 1977 schedule; the Bills will face AFC Eastern foes Baltimore, Miami, New England and the New York Jets on a home and home basis. The Bills are also slated to meet AFC powers Oakland and Denver along with the Seattle Seahawks who will play in the AFC in 1977. The remaining two Buffalo opponents in 1977 will come from the NFC group of Atlanta, New Orleans and Washington.

1976 DRAFT – Defense Bolstered in Early Picks

Defense received early attention and offense later notice as the Bills selected 23 players (second highest total among the established teams) in the 1976 college draft. Four of Buffalo's first five selections were defenders but overall the Bills took 11 defensive and 11 offensive players, plus one specialist. Buffalo, 26th in the NFL in pass defense in 1975, picked Oregon defensive back MARIO CLARK in the first round. Clark, a 6-2, 190-pound All-Pacific Eight selection, was one of the top rated cornerbacks in the nation. He had 13 career interceptions. Two hulking linemen were picked in round two. KEN JONES, a 6-5, 252-pound All-American guard from Arkansas State, will be tried at defensive end while JOE DEVLIN, a tackle from Iowa, gives the Bills further strength in the offensive line. Buffalo's third round selection was BEN WILLIAMS, another defender who won All-Southeastern Conference honors as a middle guard at Mississippi. The Bills went to the Big Ten in the fourth round, selecting DAN JILEK, an All-Big Ten defensive end at Michigan who will be switched to linebacker.

For the fifth consecutive season, WKBW Radio (1520 kc) will be flagship station for the Buffalo Bills football network. Al Meltzer will do the play-by-play with Ed Rutkowski and Rick Azar providing color and commentary.

STADIUM INFORMATION

Orchard Park is headquarters for NFL football in Western New York. Before a sellout crowd of 80,020, the Buffalo Bills dedicated their spanking new playing facility on August 17, 1973. While the visiting Washington Redskins captured the inaugural game 37-21, even defeat could not dull the enthusiasm of fans who had long awaited completion of the project.

Built on a 113-acre tract approximately 30 minutes from downtown Buffalo, the stadium was constructed at a cost of $22 million, financed by the taxpayers of Erie County. From the ground-breaking on April 4, 1972, to the inaugural, actual construction time was slightly over 14 months.

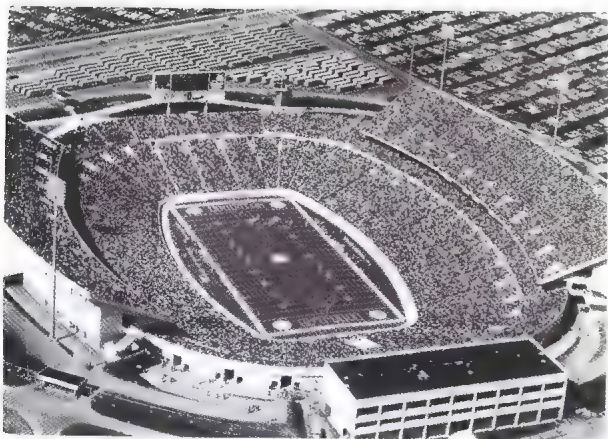

To form the lower level of the stadium more than 370,000 feet of shale was removed—putting the field 50 feet below ground level. The outside of the stadium rises only 60 feet above the horizon. The AstroTurf field has an 18-inch crown to assure proper drainage.

The Bills have approximately $3 million of their own money in the attractive physical plant. The scoreboard, most technically advanced in the nation, was purchased by the team for $1.3 million. Rising 30 feet in the air and extending a length of 105 feet, the scoreboard has a computerized matrix of nearly 10,000 light bulbs. Using the advanced techniques built into the system, the scoreboard operators are able to show instant replays of the action on the field.

Another million dollars of the club's money went to build and furnish 34 luxury private suites, which are leased on an annual basis. In addition, there are more than $700,000 in other capital expenses that were paid directly by the team.

Terms of the lease agreement, which gives the Bills an exclusive 25-year tenenacy, also gives the club financial responsibility for maintenance and operation of the stadium, a figure estimated at approximately $800,000 annually.

Surrounding the stadium are parking facilities for 16,000 cars and 300 buses. Scattered throughout the concourses are 38 concession stands and 42 rest rooms.

THE SEASON IN REVIEW

BILLS 42, JETS 14

Orchard Park, N.Y., Sept. 21 — Two third quarter touchdown drives opened up a close game and propelled the Bills to a 42-14 win over the New York Jets. Leading 21-14, Buffalo drove 77 yards in 14 plays into a strong wind to start the third quarter. Joe Ferguson hit Paul Seymour with a short touchdown pass to put the Bills on top 28-14. The Jets were quickly stopped by a pass interception and Buffalo converted the turnover into another score when Ferguson swept around right end for a touchdown. Defensive end Pat Toomay capped Buffalo's rout when he picked off a Joe Namath swing pass and raced 44 yards for a touchdown. O.J. Simpson scored two touchdowns and Jim Braxton caught a Ferguson TD pass to offset two Namath scoring strikes in the first half. Simpson finished the opening day of the 1975 season with 173 yards rushing.

BILLS 30, STEELERS 21

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 28 — A virtuoso running performance by O.J. Simpson led Buffalo to a startlingly easy 30-21 victory over Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh. In what many observers called Simpson's best day ever, The Juice ran around and through the vaunted Steeler defense for 227 yards, including an 88-yard touchdown jaunt in the third quarter that put Buffalo on top 23-0. The Bills' defense set up an early field goal and then scored itself in the second quarter when Earl Edwards grabbed a Steeler fumble and lateralled to Mike Kadish who rumbled 26 yards for a score. A touchdown pass from Joe Ferguson to Reuben Gant gave Buffalo a shocking 17-0 halftime lead and when the Steelers threatened to come back in the fourth quarter Ferguson coolly led the Bills on a touchdown march to blunt Pittsburgh's comeback hopes.

BILLS 38, BRONCOS 14

Orchard Park, N.Y., Oct. 5 — Buffalo's high powered offense rolled to a team record 29 first downs and the Bills scored their third straight victory, a 38-14 blitz of Denver. O.J. Simpson raised his season rushing total to 538 yards, picking up 138 against the Broncos while running mate Jim Braxton scored three touchdowns and rushed for 102 yards. Quarterback Joe Ferguson threw a pair of touchdowns for the third straight week.

The game was decided early when the Bills exploded for 10 points in 30 seconds. After a John Leypoldt field goal, Tony Greene picked up a Denver fumble and ran it to the three yard line. Braxton scored from in close and added a second score on a short pass from Ferguson. The Broncos answered with a touchdown, but Ferguson guided Buffalo 82 yards in the final 90 seconds of the half, hitting J.D. Hill with a TD pass with nine seconds left, giving Buffalo a 24-7 lead.

BILLS 38, COLTS 31

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 12 — Offense was the name of the game and Buffalo had just enough to outscore Baltimore 38-31 and remain undefeated through four weeks of the season. Twice the Bills had to come from behind to subdue the stubborn Colts who led 14-0 and 21-10 in the first half. Three touchdowns by Jim Braxton (six in last two games) helped offset a four-touchdown performance by the Colts' Lydell Mitchell. Two early Mitchell touchdowns gave the Colts a lead, but Joe Ferguson hooked up with John Holland on a 15-yard touchdown pass to give Buffalo a 24-21 halftime lead. Holland, filling in for the injured Bob Chandler, sparkled with six catches for 121 yards. The lead changed hands twice in the third quarter before Baltimore tied the game 31-31 early in the final period. Ferguson then drove the Bills 80 yards in 13 plays for the decisive touchdown. O.J. Simpson, who finished the day with 159 yards, carried seven times in the final scoring drive.

GIANTS 17, BILLS 14

Orchard Park, N. Y., Oct. 20 — George Hunt's 37-yard field goal with six seconds left in the fourth quarter gave the New York Giants a 17-14 upset win over the Bills in a Monday night game. Hunt's field goal provided the winning points, but the real heroes were members of the New York defensive unit that shut out the explosive Buffalo offense for nearly three quarters. The Bills, carrying a 37.0 scoring average into the game, started quickly and led 14-0 early in the second quarter. The game looked like the rout many had predicted, but Giant quarterback Craig Morton, enjoying his best game of the year, directed touchdown drives of 91 and 90 yards to tie the game early in the fourth quarter. The Bills responded by driving to New York's two yard line, but the drive stalled and John Leypoldt's 19-yard field goal attempt sailed wide, setting the stage for Hunt's winning kick.

DOLPHINS 35, BILLS 30

Orchard Park, N. Y., Oct. 26 — Buffalo's frustration with Miami reached new heights as the Bills led the Dolphins for better than 58 minutes, only to drop a 35-30 decision to the perennial Eastern Division leaders. The loss was Buffalo's eleventh straight to Miami. Jake Scott's interception with three minutes left in the game set up Don Nottingham's winning touchdown with 1:25 remaining. Scott's theft dimmed an otherwise brilliant performance by quarterback Joe Ferguson who completed 20 of 29 passes. The Bills led 13-0 ten minutes into the game after rookie Steve Freeman stole a Bob Griese pass and dashed 30 yards for a touchdown and O.J. Simpson scored on a 26-yard run. Miami kept coming back and closed the gap to 23-21 late in the third quarter. Ferguson responded with six pass completions in an 80-yard drive to put the Bills on top 30-21 but Griese guided Miami to a quick score, setting the stage for Scott's heroics and Buffalo's continued frustration.

BILLS 24, JETS 23

New York, N. Y., Nov. 2 — A controversial decision by coach Charley Winner and a clutch pass reception and run by O.J. Simpson were the main ingredients in a come-from-behind 24-23 Buffalo win over the Jets. The Jets led 23-17 with six minutes left in the game when Winner disdained a field goal attempt on a fourth and one situation at the Buffalo 20-yard line. The Bills stopped John Riggins' try for the first down and took possession. Four plays later Simpson took a short Joe Ferguson pass over the middle, split the linebackers and ran past everyone for a 64-yard touchdown play. The Bills scored on their first possession but New York came back with 23 unanswered points as penalties hampered the Buffalo offense. Trailing 23-7, Buffalo used a 40-yard field goal by John Leypoldt and a 28-yard TD pass from Ferguson to J.D. Hill to close the gap before Simpson's clutch play in the final minutes.

COLTS 42, BILLS 35

Orchard Park, N. Y., Nov. 9 — The second time O.J. Simpson touched the ball, he went 44 yards for a touchdown. Ten touchdowns and 900 yards of total offense later, the Baltimore Colts had earned a 42-35 win over Buffalo. Twice the young Colts trailed by 21 points but during one stage Baltimore reeled off five unanswered touchdowns. Simpson singlehandedly gave the Bills an early three touchdown lead, but it wasn't enough. A fake field goal worked for one Colt touchdown and in the final two minutes of the first half Bert Jones hit Roger Carr with an 89-yard bomb to cut the Buffalo lead to 28-21. Jones, who passed for 306 yards and ran for 59 more, put Baltimore on top to stay with a 19-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter. Joe Ferguson threw for 185 yards and three touchdowns in the first half alone, but left the game early in the fourth quarter with a head injury.

BENGALS 33, BILLS 24

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 17 — Monday night football became the Ken Anderson Show as the Cincinnati quarterback passed the Bengals to a 33-24 victory over Buffalo. Anderson left no doubt about the Bengals game plan as he tossed 46 passes, completing 30 for 447 yards and two touchdowns. Anderson's passing heroics offset another spectacular rushing performance by O.J. Simpson who gained 197 yards in just 17 carries. Simpson's running kept Buffalo close throughout, but Anderson successfully converted 10 of 15 third down situations and Cincinnati ran 84 offensive plays to Buffalo's 47. Cincinnati led 20-10 at halftime and twice in the second half the Bills closed to within a touchdown. Each time the Bills got close, though, Anderson passed the Bengals back into a safe lead.

BILLS 45, PATRIOTS 31

Orchard Park, N. Y., Nov. 23 — O.J. Simpson enjoyed his first four-touchdown game in the NFL as Buffalo outscored New England 45-31. Simpson ran his season touchdown total to 17 while Joe Ferguson tied a Bills record with four TD passes. Buffalo opened with 14 points in the first 10 minutes as Ferguson hit Reuben Gant and J.D. Hill with touchdown passes.

The Patriots' Sam Cunningham matched Buffalo's scores and early in the third quarter Cunningham's third touchdown of the game gave New England a 28-24 lead. Simpson and Jim Braxton carried eight times in a 12-play drive that ended with Ferguson hitting The Juice with a short scoring pass late in the third quarter. The Patriots tied the game at 31, but a 56-yard kickoff return by Vic Washington and a 44-yard pass from Ferguson to Hill set up Simpson's third touchdown of the day. Finally, a 58-yard interception return by Ike Thomas paved the way for Simpson's final clinching score.

BILLS 32, CARDINALS 14

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 27 — The Bills shrugged off travel problems and kept their playoff hopes alive with a convincing 32-14 win over NFC power St. Louis. Despite arriving in St. Louis less than three hours prior to kickoff because of snow, Buffalo completely dominated the Cardinals. With St. Louis keying on O.J. Simpson, Bills fullback Jim Braxton enjoyed his best day as a pro, rushing for 160 yards and scoring three touchdowns. While Braxton ripped the Cardinals defense apart, the maligned Buffalo defense came up with one of its strongest performances, intercepting four Jim Hart passes and limiting the explosive St. Louis offense to 54 yards rushing. St. Louis scored first after blocking a Buffalo field goal attempt but the Bills, playing their third game in 11 days, stormed back, driving 70 yards in 16 plays. Braxton carried eight times in this drive and scored from the one yard line. The rest of the game belonged to Buffalo as the Bills reeled off 32 straight points.

DOLPHINS 31, BILLS 21

Miami, Fla., Dec. 7 — An inspired second half Buffalo comeback fell short and the Bills' playoff hopes ended in a 31-21 loss to Miami. Reserve quarterback Don Strock completed 10 of 11 passes in the first half as the Dolphins completely dominated the action and took a 21-0 lead into the dressing room at halftime. The Miami defense stopped Buffalo four times inside the 10-yard line in the waning seconds of the first half in a series that loomed big later. Buffalo took charge in the third quarter, scoring on drives of 59 and 73 yards and the Bills trailed 24-14 entering the fourth quarter. With 10 minutes left in the game Joe Ferguson and O.J. Simpson hooked up on a 62-yard pass-run touchdown play and the Bills climbed to within three points. On the following series a controversial personal foul penalty against Buffalo kept a Miami drive alive and a 56-yard run by Don

BILLS 34, PATRIOTS 14

Foxboro, Mass., Dec. 14 — O.J. Simpson continued his career-long feast on the New England Patriots, rushing for 185 yards to spark Buffalo's easy 34-14 win. Simpson, who scored his 21st touchdown of the year, upped his season rushing total to 1760 yards as the Bills assured themselves of a third straight winning season. Two Patriot fumbles set up Buffalo touchdowns in a sloppy first half that saw the Bills move to a 13-7 lead. In the third quarter Ike Thomas quelled a New England scoring threat with an interception and Buffalo drove 76 yards in 11 plays, including 10 rushing plays with Simpson accounting for 54 yards. The next time Buffalo had the ball it took just one play to score as The Juice dashed 63 yards to give the Bills a comfortable 27-7 lead. Buffalo's 26 first downs in the game increased the Bills' season total to 298, an NFL record.

VIKINGS 35, BILLS 13

Orchard Park, N. Y., Dec. 20 — Record-breaking performances by O.J. Simpson and Fran Tarkenton were the only bright spots for the fans who braved a howling snowstorm to watch Minnesota rout the Bills 35-13 in the 1975 finale for Buffalo. Simpson scored two touchdowns giving him 23 for the season, breaking Gale Sayers' NFL record of 22. The rest of the game belonged to the Vikings, especially Tarkenton and running back Chuck Foreman. Tarkenton's two touchdown passes moved him ahead of John Unitas in career touchdown passes while Foreman scored four touchdowns, giving him 22 for the year. Foreman also became the first Viking ever to rush for over 1000 yards in a season. The Vikings used a ball control offense and a tough defense that intercepted Joe Ferguson three times to take a 21-0 first half lead and Minnesota never looked back.

SCHEDULE NOTES

The Bills have won their last three opening games — 31-13 over New England at Foxboro in 1973, 21-20 over Oakland in Orchard Park in 1974 and 42-14 over the New York Jets last year at home. The Bills have now opened the regular season at home eight of the last nine seasons (the lone exception New England on the road in 1973).
